

SALSA TRADING COMPANY, INC.
a california home lifestyle store

FALL/WINTER 2007

Greetings:

Welcome to Salsa Trading Company ~ our one of a kind California home lifestyle store. We offer a fresh, custom approach to designing home interiors and outdoor living spaces. Our showroom is located in Sonoma, California. Salsa's evolving mix of furnishings, accessories and art, known as "Salsa Style," is based on California's heritage: Spanish colonial and early ranch with Native American and Mexican influences. We personally design many of Salsa's timeless, one-of-a-kind handmade furnishings crafted by families in Mexico and India.

We invite you to pursue our press kit and website - and better yet, to visit us at our store in Sonoma, California. The store offers the largest selection of custom pieces, as well as recently completed "cocina" and "cantina" rooms. A one-day visit to Salsa is equivalent to searching the entire United States and Mexico for unique handmade furnishings and accessories. Visit our press room at salsatrading.com for a virtual tour.

Please feel free to follow up with us, with Pat Summers of Summers-McCann Public Relations, or with Susie Probst at Summers-McCann. Pat or Susie will be happy to set up a meeting with us, provide you with photographs, and to make sure you have all of the information you need about Salsa Trading Company. Pat can be reached at 707-938-1133 ext 106 or pat@summers-mccann.com. Susie can be reached at ext. 104 or susie@summers-mccann.com.

Please let us know how we may be of further assistance.

Cordially,

Edna Hayes and Bruce Needleman, Proprietors, Salsa Trading Company
